BHARATIYA VIDYA BHAVAN

Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan is a registered society and a Charitable Trust founded in 1938 by Dr K.M. Munshi, a far-sighted visionary and a practical idealist, along with three of his close associates with the blessings of Mahatma Gandhi to preserve and propagate Sanskrit, the mother of languages. It had the privilege of association of distinguished Freedom fighters and leaders of pre-independence and post-independence India such as Dr Rajendra Prasad, the first President of India, Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of India, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, the first Home Minister of India, Shri C Rajagopalachari, and others.

Over the years the Bhavan has steadily grown into a comprehensive, co-operative national movement, with an international outlook, for the promotion of ethical and spiritual values and Indian cultural heritage in the last 84 years through its 367 institutions across India and 7 centres abroad, staff strength of over 6000 and student base of about 3,00,000; it is probably the largest Non-governmental and Charitable organization in the country.

The Bhavan's activities touch "all aspects of life from the cradle to the grave and beyond" as Prime Minister Nehru (Founder Member of the Bhavan) averred on the first of his many visits to the Bhavan in 1950. The Bhavan is an adventure in faith. We seek to inculcate the value-based life through (1) Comprehensive educational institutions: from kindergarten to post-graduate training in Sanskrit and Vedic studies; Dance, Drama and Music; Arts, Science, Commerce, Engineering, Management, Sociology, Life and Health Sciences; and (2) Publications named Book University which cover a wide range and variety of subjects of ancient and modern thought.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Students,

It is indeed a matter of great pleasure to welcome all of you in the auspices of Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, an organization with luminous history spanning across eight decades. Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan College (BVB College) Delhi Kendra is the latest landmark in the untiring journey of Bhavan providing quality education to Indian society across levels and disciplines.

In the words of Ben Sasse 'An institution of higher education is a partnership among students and alumni, faculty and administrators, donors and trustees, neighborhoods and more, to build a community - and a culture'. BVB as an institution thoroughly believes in the idea and would like to take it further 'to shape future academicians, practitioners and citizens of our country to become independent and responsible thinkers'. In consonance with Bhavan's ideology of revitalizing ancient values and reintegrating them to suit the changing needs of modern times, the college endeavours to provide the best kind of futuristic learning experiences to our students, which are rooted in the multi-cultural ethos of our society so that they are able to assimilate whatever is good in the new, without being swept away from their traditional moorings. The focus must be on each one becoming a life-long learner. Learning never stops and should never stop. I would like to quote Abigail Adams, "Learning is not attained by chance; it must be sought for with ardor and attended to with diligence". Acquisition of degrees and certificates should never be the aim; in today's ever-changing times Learning to Learn, Unlearn and Relearn and the skills required to keep oneself abreast and ahead of times.

Therefore, it is imperative that an institution of higher education has to orient their students in such a way that they are able to recognise their own talents and potentialities; and they are able to give these a positive direction for fulfillment of their personal as well as societal, professional and national needs. Students passing out of here would not be merely professional degree holders but will be institutions in themselves.

Wishing each one of you All the Best !!!

Dr. Geetika Datta
Principal, Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan College,
Delhi Kendra
